I said it in a private conversation a few weeks ago, but might as well share it here: One of the major inroads the Trump camp has made heading into 2020 is with Christian artists.

Lots. That God's desire is worship which is just emotional expression of passionate feelings.
Whereas worship should also form people to God's will.

I think the thing that breaks my heart most about that White House photo is the very real earnestness of so many in it. People I know who love Jesus wholeheartedly but can't recognize the wolf in the pasture. (And yes, I pray for him too).

One thing I've noticed - there tend to be at least a few identifiable New Apostolic Reformation leaders in each.

Another thing - few people know the NAR even exists.

Everything that has Jesus’ name on it doesn’t always have Jesus’ praise and priorities behind it.

You can’t have an atmosphere of lively worship that disregards the lively actions of freedom and justice.

It’s an atmosphere. It’s just not the one Jesus likes to show up in.

I have put "evangelical" in parenthesis because people increasingly do not use the term because it is so associated with politics. They would have used the term in the past to express their high regard for the Bible and conviction that Jesus is "good news" (Greek: euangelion).

4. Graham has liked Trump since 2011 when both were "birthers" (after Graham liked Sarah Palin in 2008). 5. They have in common receiving money from their fathers and employing their kids.
